

LICENSE AGREEMENT

1. I, _____, (hereinafter the "Author") am submitting the work entitled _____ (herein after the "Submitted Work") for inclusion in The Steamship Historical Society of America (SSHSA) magazine (PowerShips formerly Steamboat Bill), newsletters (The Telegraph & AHOY!), and/or website, (sshsa.org).

Author hereby grants SSHSA a non-exclusive perpetual license to reproduce, adapt, distribute, perform, and display the Submitted Work in any form or medium whatsoever.

2. I represent and warrant that I own all rights granted hereunder free of any liens or encumbrances, that I have full power and authority to enter into this Assignment, and do so voluntarily.

3. Author(s) represents and warrants that either (1) he (a) is the sole author of the Submitted Work, (b) now owns all rights in it granted hereunder, free of liens or encumbrances and (c) has full power to execute this Agreement or (2) the work is a work for hire and (a) he is the sole author of the Submitted Work (b) the employer has granted permission for its use and (c) the organization has granted permission to execute this agreement.

4. Author will obtain any permission, release or clearance required for the subject matter of the Submitted Work by their employer or any other organization or individual prior to submitting the Submitted Work. Author represents and warrants that, with the exception of SSHSA and SSHSA Component events, (1) the Submitted Work has not been published or presented publicly or (2) that the work is in the public domain. Author further represent that the Submitted Work is original, and does not infringe the statutory copyright or common law literary rights of others, or violate the rights of privacy or libel other persons. If the Submitted Work contains copyrighted material owned by a third party, the Author agrees to obtain written permission from the copyright owner to use the copyrighted material in the Submitted Work and shall promptly deliver such written permission to SSHSA.

5. Author acknowledges that visitors to SSHSA's website(s) may be allowed to download or print the submitted work for their personal use, with no further permissions needed from Author.

6. Author agrees to indemnify and hold harmless SSHSA, its licensees, assignees and contractors in any action arising out of facts which constitute a breach of the aforementioned representations and warranties and hold them harmless for any and all third party claims, damages, liabilities, costs, charges and expenses including reasonable attorney's fees arising out of any breach of the aforementioned representations and warranties or relating to the content of the published paper or its presentation.

7. The Steamship Historical Society of America, Inc. regrets that it is unable to pay for the use of articles.
